BISHOP HUGHES, ON RETURN TO CALIFORNIA, LAUDS HAWAII WORK

Cooperation of Religious Organizations in Island Field Is Impressive

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—That the maintenance of a practical church federation in Honolulu and a praiseworthy spirit of cooperation among the religious forces in the territory is largely responsible for the present good standard of moral and religious conditions in Hawaii, is the summary of an interview given by Edwin H. Hughes, bishop of California, who recently returned from the islands, after conducting the annual conference of the Methodist mission in Hawaii.

Bishop Hughes said: "The people of Honolulu may recall that a certain religious leader spent one day in Honolulu a few years ago and later wrote quite at length on the need of missionary work in the Hawaiian islands."

"I do not care to duplicate his blunder or to receive any deserved ridicule. So I do not speak with particular authority, even though this was my third visit and even though I am in constant postal touch with religious work in the islands."

Cooperation is impressive.

"I am always impressed by the fine spirit of cooperation among the religious forces here. I know of no place save in certain foreign fields, where there is so little duplication. By a joint agreement with the Hawaiian board our Methodist Episcopal work there does not touch the Chinese, while there does not touch the Koreans. Among the Japanese and the Filipinos the field is so parcelled out as to prevent any foolish crossing or rivalry."

"This is as it should be. I see no chance whatever for church union unless it is preceded by practical federation. If we could not recognize each other's place and work enough to keep out of each other's way, what use would there be of any high-flown talk about church unity? Thus far, between the Methodist Episcopal forces and the Hawaiian board, there has been no such thing."

never been any hint of a breach of federation.

To build New Korean Church. "My own church hopes are long to build a good house of worship for the Korean people. This will probably be on Punchbowl street at the K-rean compound. We desire to keep the church in close relation with the Korean school, and geography counts in such matters. Also, we hope that soon we may build a church for the Filipinos. We have among these people already a considerable and very devout congregation, and they deserve better quarters. I am sure that in these two important enterprises we shall have the aid of our many friends, as we surely have had hitherto in our other work."

"As for general religious conditions, I could not speak with final authority. Doubtless many people come to the islands and remain there for purely commercial reasons. In addition, life there is very delightful. It is just possible that the two forces of money and pleasure may tend to exert a more rigorous influence than they exert in some other places."

"In ethics and in philanthropy we may become strong and may still lose the spirit of a close personal relation to God. This latter is essential to the deeply religious life, and in the long run it is likewise essential to the highest ethics and the finest philanthropies. The people in Hawaii should not suffer themselves to lose that deeply personal religious note that is caught so plainly in the letters of the early missionaries to the islands."

Less Drinking Everywhere. "You ask about the temperance situation as I have observed it. Well, there is less drinking everywhere. One sees less on the boats and from the islands. Going and coming on voyages I have seen but one man or woman who was drunk. So far as I could judge the sentiments of the passengers, this man's habits were not of the least social advantage to him."

"I am sure that in the last four years there has been a decided increase in temperance and anti-saloon sentiment in Honolulu. I have found numbers of men who have changed from and are simply waiting for the next chance to give King Alcohol an effective blow. Evidently Dr. John W. Watson and his good colleagues in the territorial Anti-Saloon League are getting in their work to good purpose."

Praise for Dr. Fry. "Dr. William Henry Fry, the new superintendent of our mission, is doing admirable work. He has gotten the details in hand in an amazingly short time and I am more than gratified by the splendid progress made under his leadership."

"Our English church under Rev. E. E. Bruce's pastorate grows constantly and strongly and is already increasing its own benevolences and making itself a world factor."

"I have had a fine trip to the islands. I like the people there, and I am going again whenever the chance presents itself."

DEATH COMES TO TWO WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE OF MAUI

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WAILUKU, March 20.—James Roberts, captain of the Lahaina police force, died at Mahulani hospital at about 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon.

Captain Roberts had been ailing for several months. He had been in the Wailuku hospital for a number of weeks, where local physicians had done all in their power by operations to save his life. The funeral took place at Lahaina and was largely attended.

For 15 years Captain Roberts had been connected with the Maui police. He was born in Lahaina and though only 36 years of age was one of the best known residents of this island, and was highly respected in his position. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

Late Tuesday night Mrs. Emily H. Bailey, widow of the late Edward H. Bailey, passed away at her Vineyard street home. She had been ill since Saturday and sank rapidly until the end. Children and grandchildren were quickly summoned and were at her bedside during the last hours. The funeral was held at 3 o'clock at the Kaahumanu church edifice. For many years Mrs. Bailey had been a faithful member of this church and the pastor of the church, Rev. L. B. Kanehela, conducted the funeral services. He was assisted by Rev. Rowland B. Dodge, who offered prayer. The young people of the church, under the direction of Mr. Moses Kaunimahu, led the singing of favorite hymns of Mrs. Bailey. The committal at Wailuku cemetery followed, when Rev. Dodge conducted a short service and offered prayer, while Mr. Kanehela pronounced a benediction. The choir sang "Nearer My God to Thee" very beautifully.

Mrs. Bailey was one of the well-known Hawaiian women of Wailuku, and had been prominent in helping her own people in many ways during the last few years. She was always faithful in her work for the Kaahumanu church.

The pall bearers were Wm. Bat, Jr., Eugene and Archie Bal, J. B. Wilson, Arthur Lloyd and John Holt, Jr. Two daughters who live in Wailuku survive Mrs. Bailey: Mrs. William E. Bal, Jr., and Mrs. Ella Rhodes. Mrs. Bailey has in all 17 grand-children and great-grandchildren, a large number of whom were present at the funeral.

You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children—advertisement.

ANTAGONISM FOSTERED BETWEEN U. S. AND JAPAN, SAYS MATHEWS

Noted Pacificator Blames Peking as Chief Source of Distorted News Stories

[Associated Press by Federal Wireles]
CHICAGO, Ill., March 23.—Dr. Shailer Mathews, who arrived at his home here yesterday from Japan, says that he finds that every possible attempt is being made to involve the United States in war with the Japanese and to create international friction. False news is being spread persistently.

The United States is being misled regarding the attitude and the desires of Japan, while Japan is being misled into believing that the United States is hostile to it and anxious for an excuse to make trouble.

The best informed people of Japan, he says, believe that this is a part of a definite propaganda by interested nations who desire to promote American-Japanese difficulties. Peking, says Dr. Mathews, is the persistent source of the stories that find their way into the American and Japanese press.

As a result of the propaganda, the vernacular press in Japan is creating an anti-American spirit in the general sentiment of the Japanese masses.

JAPAN LANDS TROOPS

PERING, China, March 23.—Japan is continuing her preparations to back up her demands on China by force of arms. Following the appearance last week of a squadron of cruisers off the southern coast, there arrived in Mukden today 3000 troops, in Daini 3000 more, in Tsin 1000 and in Fungtso 500.

PROMINENT NEW YORKER MURDERS WIFE AND TURNS GUN ON SELF

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 23.—While his wife sat playing at the piano yesterday, Toward Boocock (Yale 1900), treasurer of the Astor Trust company and prominent socially, stepped up behind her and shot her dead.

Turning the revolver against his own temple, he then committed suicide.

An examination of his books at the trust company showed that his accounts were in good order and the only explanation conjectured for his act is that he may have been deranged mentally by the after effects of an operation he had recently undergone.
